

ABSTRACT

Endang Lestari. (2023). The Implementation of Extracurricular Traditional Music Kelentang in an Effort to Build a Sense of Love for Local Culture at SDN 4 Lendang Nangka.

This research aims to examine students' sense of love for local culture at SDN 4 Lendang Nangka. This is qualitative research with data collection techniques and instruments were carried out through interview, questionnaires, and documentation. Through data collection, data reduction, data presentation, and drawing conclusions. The result showed that there are several educational values in an effort to foster a sense of love for local culture which is developed through the traditional musical instrument kelentang. These include honest, trustworthy behavior in words, work and actions. Tolerance, an attitude that respects differences. Discipline, an attitude that demonstrates obedient. Hard work, behavior that shows sincerity. Independent, attitude or behavior that does not depend on other people. Curiosity, an attitude that always seeks to know more deeply and broadly. Friendly, attitudes and behavior that show joy. Love of peace, attitudes and behavior that cause other people to feel happy and safe. Caring for the environment, attitudes or actions that always try to prevent environmental damage. Social care, attitudes and behavior that always want to provide assistance to others. Responsible, an attitude and behavior in carrying out duties and obligations.

Keywords. Traditional kelentang music, love of local culture.

